PRONUNCIATION

Who can study in the ELCP?

All individuals seeking intensive English Language instruction may apply to the ELCP.

- Student Visa (F-1 or M-1)
- Prospective Student Visa (B-2)
- Visitor (B-1 or B-2)
- Other visa types: Other visa categories and their regulations are too numerous for this presentation. Almost all visa categories allow a person to attend school either full or part-time.
- Refugees, Immigrants, resident aliens, and US citizens are also welcome to apply.

When can I apply?

The ELCP program has five 8 week sessions beginning in January, March, June, August, & October.

Out-of-country students should apply no later than 1 ½ months prior to the start of the session in order to ensure appropriate time to receive their visa.

How do I apply?

Applicants must submit the following items:

1. Completed Application Form

→ available online at www.lcc.edu/langskills/elcp

2. Copy of information page on Passport

3. Supporting financial documents. One (1) of the following documents meets this requirement:

- An original official bank statement in English showing the current amount on deposit that is no less than $19,000
- an official letter from a sponsoring agency indicating the specific amount of support and conditions.

4. Original or Certified proof of successful completion of studies equivalent to U.S. high school (secondary).

We cannot accept a fax or photocopied document.

5. Documentation of English proficiency.

One (1) of the following documents meets this requirement:

- A copy of TOEFL test score.
- High school or college transcript showing English courses and grades.
- A statement from any educational institution indicating level of English proficiency

6. Personal Representative Statement (optional):

If the student wishes that LCC provide information about their application status or I-20 to someone other than themselves, they must give LCC written permission to do so.

The letter must come mailed directly to LCC from the student only.

Orientation & Placement Tests

After being admitted to the ELCP, you are required to attend a new student orientation. Orientation will include:

- ✓ US Immigration Requirements
- ✓ Health, Housing, & Transportation Issues
- ✓ Student Services
- ✓ Campus Tour
- ✓ Placement Testing

Placement tests are given to all new students to determine the appropriate level of study. The tests may include a timed writing sample, grammar, reading, and aural comprehension. You will be placed in each skill area according to your test scores. It is possible for you to be placed in different levels in each skill area.

Once you've been accepted...

Upon acceptance, ELCP will issue the student an I-20 form with the acceptance letter. (Only for students applying for an F-1 or M-1 visa)

The student must present this I-20 form to the U.S. Embassy or Consulate to obtain a student visa.

The length of time required to obtain a visa and the method of applying vary at each U.S. Embassy or Consulate. Check with the nearest U.S. Embassy or Consulate for information on the process currently in effect.
