For the spotlight we need an electronic photograph of you, headshots preferred. If you do not have a professional photograph, feel free to send what you do have and we will make the necessary adjustments.

Following is the College Media Release Agreement so we can use the photograph you provide. Please send your photograph to lathropa@lcc.edu.

Media Release Agreement:

I authorize Lansing Community College to use still photographs, motion pictures, video tapes, digital images, and/or sound recordings of me without restriction of any sort. I understand the pictures or sound may be edited and combined with other pictures and sound recordings. The final edited pictures and sounds may be shown without restriction, including radio and television broadcast, cablecast, printed publication, Internet web pages, and any other media including CD, DVD, digital imaging, and network streaming. Lansing Community College may assign these rights to other parties for their use.

Miscellaneous Opportunities- the following are potential ways to include you in the activities of the association as we have an ongoing effort to engage alumni (if sending via email highlight the box or bold your interest)

- I am interested in visiting Lansing Community College and speaking to students (this can also be done via the internet).
- I am interested in discussing ways for my company to offer class projects, externships and/or internships to Lansing Community College programs and students.
- I am interested in learning more or participating in the future LCC student mentoring/job shadowing program.
- I am interested in additional ways to promote my company at Lansing Community College.
- I am interested in learning how to develop or begin a custom company or individual scholarship that goes to a student(s) enrolled in a program of my preference (business, arts, information technology, child care, nursing, police, fire, low income/greatest need, etc...)
- I am interested in supporting Lansing Community College Alumni Association activities/events and promoting my company.
- I am interested in being a member of the Lansing Community College Alumni Association Committee. This committee acts as an advisory group to the association and its members are alumni from the community.
- I am interested becoming a member of the Lansing Community College Alumni Association or learning more about the membership benefits.
